

March 4

On this day in 1789, Congress met for the first time. During the First Congress, they decided to create important rules, like the Constitution. It tells us how to be fair, have leaders, and make sure everyone has rights like talking and being safe. Do you feel there should be anything added to the Constitution? Why or why not?